D Spencer announces to gentlemen that his arrange ments are now completed for supplying according to previous intimation, A FINE FUR HAT at a price ($3 25 which shall render it emphatically the cheapest as well as lowest priced Gentlemen's Fur Hat ever on sale in this city. It is prepared in the same style which characterizes our finest article, and like that article is offered at a price a which it cannot be continued without an unusually rapid sale. The undersigned with all confidence affirms it to be for the gentleman and economist the most desirable Fur Hat yet offered. (020tf) SPENCER, 245 Broadway.

I Orlando Fish, Fashionable Hatter, 137 Broad way, would inform the gentlemen of New-York that his Fall and Winter style of Hats is now ready for their inspection and critical judgement. Claiming the distinction of having been the first to project and abide by a strictly AMERICAN style of Hats, instead of servilely copying the Fashions of Europe, which are often unsuited to our climate and manners , he rejoices to perceive that others have seen fit to follow his lead, and that now the following European Fashions in Hats is almost entirely abandoned by the leading manufacturers.

He offers a Winter style of Gentlemen's Nutria Hats at $3.50, and warrants them equal in material, finish, fashion and durability to any Hat sold as low as $4 in the city. But he wishes it distinctly understood that his best Hats are not sold at this price, but at $4.50. These be recommended as equal to any hat sold in New-York at $5 or under, and challenges for them a comparison with any other.

Sentlemen visiting our city are respectfully invited to call and examine his new stock of Winter hats and judge of their quality. He is confident that, whether the cheapest o the best Hat is desired, the inquirer will here be satisfied.

Try him. (s20tf) O. FISH, 187 Broadway.

Conant, Fashienable Hatter, 250 Grand-street, would inform the gentlemen of New-York that his fall and winter style of Hats are now ready for their inspection.

In strict accordance with the true principles of conomy, the subscriber has introduced for the economist a beautiful, fine finished, Fur Hat at the low price of $4, which he unhesitatingly affirms is equal to those sold in more expensive parts of the city at $4.50 and $5. Persons who have been in the habit of paying the latter prices for their Hats can now furnish themselves in the aparticle sensel in every renow furnish themselves with an article equal in every respect for the sum of four dollars. To those who wish a low priced Hat he offers a fine, finished, substantial article of Fur Hats at $3, equal to those sold for $8.50, or even the famous $6.62 Hat. Also, a complete assortment of Silk famous $3 624 Hat. Also, Hats, at extremely low prices. CONANT, 280 Grand-street.

TFur Mats at $3.50.—The subscriber having had a number of applications for a FUR HAT, combining the qualities of beauty and durability, at a reduced price, has made arrangements with his manufacturers by which he will be enabled, on Wednesday next, Oct. 12th, to offer to his numerous customers, and the public generally, an article which, for tineness of material and beauty of finish, he feels confident will be equal, if not superior, to any thing of the same description that has, as yet, been offered. The subscriber will not insult an intelligent public by saying, in subscriber will not insult an intelligent public by saying, in the language of an advertiser who claims to regulate (?) the fashions, that the article now offered is the same as that formerly sold for six and even seven dollars; still, he has no hesitation in asserting that it is worth at least twelve and a half per cent more than the price asked. He is also prepared to sell a CASSIMERE HAT of superior quality at the same price, for which, together with an assortment of Satin Beaver, Moleskin, and extra fine Fur Hats, he solicits share of public patronage.

ALBA KIMBALL offers his services to Merchants and others for the sale of Stocks at Public Auction.
For the accommodation of dealers, he will hold daily a public sale of such Stocks as are offered, in the Rotunda of the Merchants' Exchange, where boyers and sellers being present, can regulate their transactions satisfactorily to hemselves.

The publicity of these sales will obviate the frequent controversies and law suits which arise under the present system; being subject to the same rules of business as Merchants' sales, and open to inspection, where every person an exercise his own judgement.

Principals will have the liberty, whenever they so elect, o make the transfers direct to the purchaser, and receive the proceeds.

Dealers will derive another important advantage through he medium of the Auctioneer's advertisements, as Stocks are frequently sold at the Board of Brokers at a less price than could have been obtained, had they been advertised and the state made another applies.
